

IN BED BY TEN's - UKULELE SHUFFLE

(to the tune of The Cat Came Back)

by Tav3it (the 3 is silent)

Em x2, D x2, C7 x2, B7 x2 (and on and on and on and on...)

Strum each chord twice- down/up/down - in a slow "swing"

CHORUS

It's the ukulele shuffle and it goes like this.
It's the same four chords it's kinda hard to miss.
And when we get confused we just make it all up.
It's the ukulele shuffle and you can't shut us up.

VERSE 1

We're in a local band that no one listens to.
They say that it's the instruments that they won't do.
It's a ukulele band and it's small - that's true.
But we can make it rock like we're singing the blues.
(Chorus)

VERSE 2

We play the ukulele cause it's kinda cool.
We don't have any talent and we sing like fools.
But we don't care we've got no friends anyway.
We keep strumming on the strings and scare them away.
(Chorus)

VERSE 3

Here's another verse that has nothing to say.
I'd make something up but it'd mess up my play.
I'm trying real hard to hit all the right strings.
But it get's real hard when everybody sings.
(Chorus)

VERSE 4

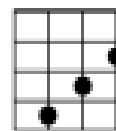

I'm having some problems playing this damn chord.
My fingers feel too big and I'm getting real bored.
I think we gonna have to play the chorus again.
We're a Rhode Island band, we're In Bed By Ten.
(Chorus)

VERSE 5

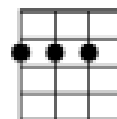

Sooner or later we got to end this dumb song.
We could end it anywhere - you really can't go wrong.
No one really cares about the song anyway (stop song here)
