

Bhagavad Gita Song

(sung to the tune of the Coconut Song)

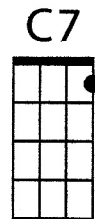

("You put the lime in the coconut and you drink it all up...")

It's the Bhagavad Gita ~ Not just another story
'Bout Arjuna in a chariott who's got some cause to worry.
In battle with his relatives ~ he thinks it's such a shame
but his driver is the Krishna ~ (that's god's other name)

CHORUS (to be sung between each verse)

I said Krishna, What's a fellow s'posed to do?
I said Krishna, What if it was up to you?
I said Krishna, What's a fellow s'posed to do?
I said Krishna, What if it was up to you?

He drove down to the battle field - he took a look around
He stood between the armies and this is what he found - there was his cousins and his uncles - his teachers and his friends
Arjuna turns to Khrisna and asks what he recommends

Khrisna's got the answers ~ he lays it out so clear
You're not who you think you are ~ there's nothing here to fear
You think we're all just separate ~ You're just a little blind
I'm gonna show you something now ~ that's gonna blow your mind

Arjuna got real curious and said 'let's see you god'
So Khrishna says 'OK but it's gonna look real odd
He became the cosmos ~ Just too much to see Arjuna said 'I get it now' This all just has to be!

There's no more to the story ~ It's about identity
Arjuna's changed ~ he now sees ~ the whole reality
It's a real cool story ~ Not just this little song
Read the Bhagavad Gita ~ It won't steer 'ya wrong.
